

Underage Players Try-Out Agreement

Under age players in the categories U-12 and above, shall be permitted to tryout for a category above their age group but players are required to participate in the evaluations of both their own age group and the higher age group.

Parents wishing to have their child tryout as an underage player must get the written approval of the BUS Management Committee for both age groups and at the U-12 and older age categories, sign an acceptance of this policy in advance before their child may tryout.
